Judge Mundell Receives High Honor

Barbara Rodriguez Mundell
Presiding Judge

Judge Barbara Rodriguez Mundell was selected by the State Bar of Arizona’s Board of Governors as this year’s recipient of the James A. Walsh Outstanding Jurist Award.

Judge Mundell was nominated for managing one of the largest judicial systems in the country in a dignified and graceful manner at a time when the judiciary has been under unprecedented attacks.

The award recognizes “that judge whose career exemplifies the highest standards of judicial conduct for integrity and independence; who is knowledgeable of the law and faithful to it; who is unswayed by partisan interests, public clamor or fear of criticism; who is patient, dignified and courteous to all who appear before the court; and who endeavors to improve the administration of justice and public understanding of, and respect for, the role of law in our society.”

She will be presented with the award during the State Bar’s Annual Luncheon on June 11, 2010.

News and Notes

Law Librarian Receives Prestigious Honor

On April 1, the Board of Governors for the State Bar of Arizona announced Susan Armstrong as its recipient of the State Bar of Arizona's 2010 Award of Appreciation.

Armstrong was nominated for "graciously helping all patrons with equal interest and sincerity. Not only does she help pro per litigants, Armstrong provides valuable research assistance to attorneys."

"Susan has been with the Court for more than 25 years and it is with great pride that I ask you to join me in congratulating her on receipt of this auspicious award and her well-deserved recognition," Court Administrator Marcus Reinkensmeyer said.

The award is given to a non-member of the bar "in recognition of outstanding service toward the creation of a better public understanding of the legal profession and the administration of justice, the judiciary or the legislative process."

This award will be presented during the State Bar's Annual Luncheon to be held at noon on Friday, June 11, 2010 in conjunction with the Annual State Bar Convention at the Renaissance Glendale Hotel & Spa in Glendale, AZ.

Judge Richard Trujillo and his judicial assistant, Candace Werve, celebrate the Judge's retirement. Judge Trujillo was appointed to the Superior Court Bench in 2001.

Judicial Branch Finance is on the Move

Adult Probation Employee Awards

On April 8, 2010, the Maricopa County Adult Probation Department celebrated its “Of the Year Awards” at the Black Canyon Building.

“2009 Employee of the Year” Alison Cook-Davis: Alison, a third year member of the Department, is the backbone driving the processes that collect the data used to report APD’s activities and outcomes to the State, the County, grants and research. She is also responsible for assembling the data from caseload stats to support our budgets and prove that evidence-based practices make a big difference in protecting our communities. In 2009, she spearheaded the hand count and lead the research into finding better ways to meet the needs of opted-in victims, just to name a few of her many projects.

“2009 Supervisor of the Year” Susan Savoy - Susan oversees the Legacy/85041 Project. This project is located in an area considered to have one of the highest recidivism rates of probationers released from prison in Arizona. Susan has devoted endless hours to the Legacy/85041 project and the department’s vision of improving the quality of community life by offering hope to neighborhoods, victims and offenders.

“2009 Probation Officer of the Year” Rick Temby: Rick consistently maintains the highest standard in the performance of job duties & special projects. In addition to supervising a high risk and labor intensive caseload, Rick always takes the initiative to involve himself in projects and new challenges. In 2009, Rick was instrumental in the process of selecting an electronic monitoring vendor for the Pretrial Division & Juvenile Probation.

“2009 Surveillance Officer of the Year” David Silvas: He is responsible for assisting officers in monitoring and enforcing the conditions of probation and surveillance. This is accomplished by monitoring probationer activities, enforcing mandated curfews, making telephone contacts, visiting work sites, making jail contacts, visiting homes and maintaining detailed reports and files on probationers. He also inputs entries into the Adult Probation Enterprise Tracking System, administers urinalysis and breathalyzer tests, assists in arrests, conducts searches and seizures and testifies in Court when required.
