WHEREAS, the Arizona State University (ASU) Center for Applied Behavior Health Policy has been contracted by Prevent Child Abuse Arizona and First Things First to conduct a research project that includes an evaluation of the outcomes of dependency and severance cases filed in the Juvenile Court involving infants and toddlers, as well as the cases assigned to the Maricopa County Cradle to Crayons Welfare Center; and

WHEREAS, ASU has requested data from the Superior Court to conduct this research; and

WHEREAS, the Superior Court in Maricopa County supports this research project and desires to assist with the project and obtain the results of the research; and

WHEREAS, Rule 123(d)(1)(B) of Rules of the Supreme Court provides the Superior Court may order access to dependency and severance records; and

WHEREAS, the Superior Court and ASU will be entering into a Record Access Agreement regarding the data to be provided to ASU;

IT IS ORDERED as follows:

1. Subject to the terms of the Record Access/Dissemination Agreement, the Juvenile Court Administration and the Department of Research and Planning for the Superior Court in Maricopa County are authorized to provide statistics, bulk data, records and information to ASU regarding dependency cases filed in the Superior Court in Maricopa County from July 5, 2011 and December 31, 2012.
2. Juvenile Court Administration and the Department of Research and Planning for the Superior Court in Maricopa County are also authorized to provide statistics, bulk data, records and information to ASU regarding dependency cases filed in the Superior Court in Maricopa County for another time frame to be agreed upon between ASU and Juvenile Court Administration to use as a comparison group.
3. The data provided to ASU will include but is not limited to names, dates of birth, services provided, and the case outcomes.

4. ASU is authorized to share the data provided with the Arizona Department of Economic Security (DES) in order to obtain records and information in the possession of DES for those involved in the cases filed from July 5, 2011 and December 31, 2012 and for the comparison group.
5. ASU shall secure all data, records, and information provided by the Superior Court and shall not share, copy, or use the data, records, and information except as authorized in this order and the Record Access/Dissemination Agreement and this order.
6. ASU shall ensure that only ASU employees, researchers, students, interns, externs and/or volunteers who have been approved by the Maricopa County Superior Court have access to the data, records, and information provided under this order.
7. The final report shall not include personal identifiers or any information which may be used to identify a specific parent or child.
8. When the report has been completed and the data, records, and information is no longer needed, ASU shall destroy all records and information, and shall confirm to the Superior Court that the data, records, and information has been destroyed.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that ASU shall provide a copy of the final report to the Presiding Judge and the Juvenile Presiding Judge and this Administrative Order terminates upon receipt of the final report to the Presiding Judge and the Juvenile Presiding Judge.

Dated this 8th day of January, 2013.
